LEWISTON — The atmosphere's just a little different at the Brickyard on Toast & Jam nights, notes Dale Campbell.

"By the end of the night, it feels like a sing-along at a friend's house," he explains of Toast & Jam, now in its 12th year.

The weekly series kicked off on Monday at the Brickyard Pub, 432 Center St., Lewiston. The jazz-jammin', blues-rockin', poetry-reading coffeehouse event is back by popular demand and continues from 7-10 p.m. Mondays through March 21.

Singer-songwriter, Dale Campbell hosts the six-week series of open mic entertainment which is open to all singers, musicians, poets, actors, dancers, comics and performance artists.

Campbell's calling card boasts a long history of open mics and he can be heard regularly on WJL,

“Just Me and the Dog” and “Dale Campbell — All About Town.”

Performers sign up as they arrive and play on a first-come, first-served basis.

Most of the people who perform at open mics are not professionals. They do it for the love of it, and part of the fun for the audience is never knowing what to expect.

“Some performers are really good, others are just there to have fun,” Campbell says, “and everyone loves the delicious food they serve at the Brickyard!”

Vic's Woodshed Music and Lewiston Music have donated a guitar to raffle. Winner will be drawn at the Toast & Jam finale on March 21.

Highlights from Toast & Jam are featured throughout the year on Lockport Community TV so performers are invited to take advantage of this unique opportunity to enjoy a moment in the spotlight.

Toast & Jam is presented by Lewiston Council on the Arts and sponsored by Lewiston Brickyard Pub, Lockport Community TV (LCTV), Cataract Printing, Lewiston Music and Vic's Woodshed Music.
